

Higher Education First Friday Chat, September 3, 2021 ASU Education Programs

- 00:11 Welcome & Staff/Presenter Introductions
- 7:35 Introduction of Dr. Nicole Johnson, Vice Dean & Professor, Division of Teacher Preparation at ASU; Preparing Educators for Arizona's Indian Communities (PEAIC) Grant Opportunities
- 11:45: Presentation begins, overview of presentation
 - ASU Mary Lou Fulton Teachers College PEAIC Program Options
 - Tribal Partnerships
- 12:40: Options for participants with Associate Degrees
- 13:30: Option 1: BA or BS in Early Childhood Education
 - Funding
 - Tuition, living stipend, technology, conferences, membership fees, etc.
 - Requires Tribal membership
 - *Payback service as required for Arizona Teacher's Academy funding
- 14:27: Option 2: BA or BS in Early Childhood Education
 - Funding
 - Tuition, living stipend, technology, conferences, membership fees, etc.
 - Open to Tribal members & non-Tribal individuals who work on indigenous lands or in indigenous schools
 - *Payback service as required for Arizona Teacher's Academy funding
- 15:27: Overview of Participant requirements/technology needed
- 16:07: Option 3: Elementary Education/Special Education Dual Certification Bachelor's for Paraprofessionals
 - Funding
 - Tuition, living stipend, technology, conferences, membership fees, etc.
 - Open to Tribal members & non-Tribal individuals who work on indigenous lands or in indigenous schools.
 - *Payback service as required for Arizona Teacher's Academy funding.
- 17:45: Payback Requirements
- 18:33: Pathway without Associate Degree
- 18:38: Extended Kin Network Educator Training
- 20:11: Extended Kin Network Educator Training/Sample Topics
- 21:05: Nanocourses / "Cluster"
- 21:24: Next Steps
- 21:54: 1. Apply for Admission at ASU
 - <https://admission.asu.edu/>
- 21:58: 2. Select the Appropriate Program
 - Option 1 and 2
 - Option 3
 - Questions? Speak with an ASU recruiter at 480-965-9995 or email ASUeducation@asu.edu

- 22:14: Submit a FAFSA to apply for aid:
 - <https://studentaid.gov/h/apply-for-aid/fafsa>
- 22:39: Feel free to contact the ASU team if you need help (contact info. above)
- 23:44: Review FAFSA and discuss the Arizona Teacher's Academy Scholarship
- 25:16: Once admitted, contact advising office to schedule an appointment and register:
 - Phone: 480-965-5555
 - Email: educationadvising@asu.edu
- 25:50: Team of Advisors overview
- 26:38: Open for questions
- 27:00: Question about transcripts
- 28:36: Questions about coursework and timeline
- 30:08: Question about how many classes are taken at a time
- 30:19: Question about technology support and how the scholarship works
- 31:58: Question about picking up technology
- 32:29: Question about staff interested in nanocourses
- 33:48: Comment about duplicate accounts and ASURITE IDs
- 36:18: Response to comment from ASU
- 38:44: It is ASU's intent to be as helpful and supportive to everyone who applies to the Program.
- 39:22: Comment about classes, ASU requirements & process
- 41:21: Response to comment from ASU; discussion of application completion and FAFSA workshops
- 42:17: Request to have ASU send SRS program requirements to share with those who might be interested.
- 43:05: Conclusion/Thank you ASU Faculty and Staff members and all participants for participating in the Higher Ed. First Friday Chat.

*Participants must commit to one year of teaching for each year they receive the scholarship. Example: Student receives the scholarship for two years, payback requires that the student teaches in the classroom for two years.